Beijing Hao!

Six Chinese photomedia artists

China’s capital Beijing is a pulsing, vibrant metropolis where the old and new compete for space in an ever-changing environment. Beijing Hao! presents the work of six Chinese photomedia artists whose imagery is based in and around Beijing: Zhou Jun, Huang Xu, Li Gang, Feng Yan, Zhang Hongkuan and Liu Gang.

Presented as part of Queensland Festival of Photography 4, a biennial event organised by Queensland Centre for Photography.

Curator: Gordon Craig

Professor Deborah Terry
Vice-Chancellor
The University of Queensland

Invites you and a guest to the opening of

Beijing Hao!

Six Chinese Photomedia Artists

To be opened by

Professor Ping Chen
Director
Confucius Institute
The University of Queensland

Friday 30 March 2012
6.00 for 6.30 pm

Public program
Saturday 31 March 2012
12.30 – 1.00 pm: Curator talk – Gordon Craig
1.00 – 2.00 pm: Hao Now!
A conversation exploring the experience of contemporary artists working in and around Beijing, and the intersection between international photography and the Chinese contemporary art world.
Chaired by Maurice Ortega, Director of Queensland Centre for Photography, with artists Zhou Jun and Feng Yan, and curator Gordon Craig.
2.00 – 2.30 pm: Afternoon tea with the panellists.

RSVP
Monday 26 March 2012
Email: artmuseum@uq.edu.au
Telephone: 07 3365 3046

Exhibition continues until 3 June 2012